

Aldrich Bill Gives Banks Unsafe Power Senator Stone Avers

SENATOR WILLIAM J. STONE,

Of Missouri, Who Declares Republican Chickens Came Home to Roost in the Recent Panic.

Full Dinner Pail No Longer Belongs on Republican Shield.

Wants Government to Issue Its Own Emergency Currency.

Investing against the Aldrich bill in the Senate today, Senator William J. Stone of Missouri taunted the Republican majority upon the sad plight of the country, which, he declared, had arisen directly from a high tariff policy, and an inefficient currency system.

"You have given us," he exclaimed, "a financial system which is but a patchwork, a sort of crazy quilt, which turns the financial well-being of the country over to the keeping of a great association of banking corporations, without taking pains to sufficiently safeguard the people against abuses and which have fastened upon us a taxing system, under the operation of which grasping monopolies are created to plunder the people. At last the chickens have come home to roost, as they were

DEFER RECOMMENDATION OF ROCK CREEK BRIDGE

The Georgetown Citizens' Association deferred action last night on the question of recommending a bridge over Rock creek, when President George A. King stated that if immediate action were taken he would resign his office. Mr. King's attitude was due, he said, to the fact that he had invited W. J. Douglas, the District engineer, to appear before the association and explain both sides of the matter. Mr. King said that a vote on the subject before Mr. Douglas had an opportunity to speak would be disconcerting to him and to the Commissioners. The association thereupon deferred action on the report submitted by the committee on bridge improvements. The report declared that it was the duty of the association to forcefully assert its rights by demanding of the present Congress immediate and permanent relief.

Drunkards Cured In 24 Hours

Any Lady Can Cure the Most Violent Drunkard Secretly at Home.

To Prove It, a Free Trial Package Is Sent Sealed to All Who Write.

Let no woman despair. The sure, quick, permanent cure for drunkenness has been found.

It is the Golden Remedy. It has no odor. It has no taste. Just a little in the food of the drunkard's cup of coffee or tea, or in his food. He will never notice it. He will be cured before he realizes it, and he will never know why he abandoned the taste for liquor.

"The full dinner pail will not be again blazoned as an emblem of triumph on the Republican shield. Caricatures of workingmen tramping in tattered apparel will be no longer borne on Republican transparencies as a warning to the wage-earner to throw the Democratic party over."

"The Missouriian expressed the fear that 'a Pandora's box is being opened by the Aldrich bill,' and urged the issuance of emergency Treasury notes instead of emergency bank circulation, for he thought it a grave error to con national banks."

"I object to giving to banks the power to regulate in any degree the volume of the people's currency by expanding or contracting it, as it may happen to suit their whim or their interests," he said. "He favored the currency of the nation, and he will not allow the volume of the currency to be regulated by the whim of a few individuals."

Senator Stone said the recent defense of the Secretary of the Treasury to charges of favoritism, "was not satisfying or convincing."

He said the Secretary's defense was "a mere evasion," and that the Secretary's "policy of favoritism" was "a mere evasion."

HARD ON THE HOUSE, BUT GUNTE SAYS SO

The House of Representatives resembles a congress of nations, according to a "spiel" which one of the Capitol guides incorporated today in his lecture to a party of tourists.

"Look at the membership of the House," he said, in one of the galleries. "It includes people from many nations. There are from the United States, one from Porto Rico, a German, a half-Indian, two from the Philippines, and a good many Americans."
